"THE NEED IS URGENT."

SAVE ST. PAUL'S AT ONCE.

"CATHEDRAL OF THE EMPIRE."

Hongkong Begins to Bestir Itself.

"St. Paulin," who wrote on the lack of direction in Hongkong on the matter of St. Paul's Restoration fund, in yesterday's "China Mail" and others like him may shortly have the opportunity of associating themselves with an organised effort.

Nothing definite has yet been decided in regard to the matter and the Bishop of Victoria when approached by the "China Mail" declined to make any statement at present although he indicated that possible steps were being considered.

Indications point to the probability of a special collection being taken at the Cathedral in the near future, but apart from this the idea has been mooted that a public subscription list shall be drawn up for Hongkong firms and private individuals to have an opportunity of contributing something towards the preservation of what is a great monument of British tradition.

It is a move on these lines that the Hongkong Government is doubtless awaiting before the question of any grant from them is raised in Council and which if effect is given to it will certainly influence many who are willing and anxious to give if the necessary organisation is brought into being.

As has already been pointed out, it is only fair that the burden of maintaining in fit condition an edifice that has gathered round it the affection of the Empire for many generations should be shared far and wide, throughout the borders of that Empire and not be left to be carried along by those who dwell in the Homeland. St. Paul's has been rightly referred to as one of the bonds of the Empire and it is one that all should do their best to strengthen.

In making his appeal to the Dominions, Dean Inge, of the Cathedral Chapter, said that they were proud to think of themselves as the central church not only of London but the British Empire and as such they had conducted memorial services during the Great War for all sections of the Imperial forces.

Upon receiving the information that Australia and New Zealand were inaugurating funds Sir Alfred Bower, Lord Mayor of London, sent the following message: "The need is urgent. St. Paul's deserves to have come to be known as the Cathedral of the Empire. I am confident that the Dominions will co-operate as far as lies in their power to preserve it both for themselves and future generations of the Empire."

EXHIBITION.

MRS. G. MACPHERSON'S WORK

Mrs. G. MacPherson's exhibition of 32 pictures, representing work done in the Far East and at Home over a period of two years, opened at the Hongkong Hotel this morning. The pictures show the infinite phases of the true artist's moods and will give general pleasure. The pen and ink drawings in particular will excite comment and give rise to discussion. Some show the development from what may be termed the cross-hatched style—pen-ink with a little water colour mixed—to the style which seems to dispense with the latter. The treatment seems to be original; it is certainly very effective as will be seen from a near-distant inspection of the various Hongkong scenes which have been so treated. Whilst opinion will be agreeably diversified as to the merit of the individual pictures, there should be general agreement as to the beauty in most of them. No. 3 which is a study of junks in the mist is a nocturne of subdued colour, in which the sad enveloping sense of a humid morning on the harbour is most beautifully sensed. No. 14 is a bold presentation of the harbour in the early morning, evidently in an agreeable colour blend and the effects are reached in a manner, not over bold, but with an idea of vigorous strength. No. 1 occupies a commanding position and is called "Sea Nymph." The atmosphere of intense grief is shown in the tense position of the kneeling figure, whilst the nymph symbolises peace that is beyond words to describe. In a phantasy (No. 32, The Bowl of Life) the lines of the woman's head are given with a sense of strength wholly admirable. Several paintings of Cheung Chau show the rocky formation of part of the island—No. 4 especially giving a very realistic idea of the actual. Various paintings of Hongkong and the harbour show majestic liners rising gracefully from the water; whilst at the wharf, Kowloon "is as near perfection of the actual as it is possible to get. There is also a touch of realism in No. 28, Talkoo Works, in which the idea of the clanging of a shipyard is cleverly conveyed. No. 27, a decorative drawing is beautiful, whilst the sense of distance is cleverly shown in No. 13, Kent. It is impossible to do adequate justice to all the beauty that is shown in the whole of the 32 pictures. An inspection will be well worth any trouble taken. The exhibition will be continued to-morrow from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

FROZEN OUT.

REPUBLICAN INSURGENTS
BARRED.

WOMEN IN POLITICS.

(Reuter's American Service.)

WASHINGTON, March 5. The Republicans, having clear working majorities assured in both Houses of Congress, have excluded the La Follette insurgents from their councils, depriving them of committee promotions in the Senate and committee chairmanships in the House of Representatives.

Thus the insurgents have lost power to mould legislation which they possessed to so large an extent in the last Congress.

The House is composed of 233 Regular and 12 Insurgent Republicans; 183 Democrats and five of various Parties. There are two vacancies which will be filled presumably by Republicans.

The Senate is composed of 51 Regular and 4 Insurgent Republicans; 40 Democrats and one Farmer Labour.

There was only one woman member of the old House, Mrs. Nolan, of California, who retired voluntarily, but there is still a woman member, the new House, Mrs. Mary Norton, Democrat, elected in November, and representing the twelfth new Jersey district. She is the first woman Democrat member.

Carrying returned Chinese emigrants direct from Bangkok to Swatow, the Indo-China steamer Hangang reported on arrival at Hongkong yesterday that two deaths and one birth occurred during the voyage.

PRINCE GEORGE

Not Passenger By

"Mantua."

LAST MOMENT CHANGE.

A SUDDEN ATTACK OF

INFLUENZA.

Owing to cables from Home having stated definitely that arrangements had been completed for the passage of Sir Lieut. His Royal Highness Prince George, K.G., G.C.V.O., from Hongkong to Hongkong or Singapore by the "Mantua," it had been confidently anticipated by passengers of that boat which arrived in Hongkong this morning, that they would have the pleasure of his company.

Owing to an attack of influenza, however, the Prince's passage was cancelled at the last moment, and although one of his fellow "Subs," who was to have been his companion, made the journey to Singapore, His Royal Highness's arrangements had to be abruptly altered.

Upon enquiry in official quarters this morning the "China Mail" was informed that nothing was known as to arrangements having been made for Prince George to leave Home by the P. and O. boat. It all depended on the Prince's fitness.

WHERE IS CHAN?

REPORTED FLIGHT TO HONGKONG.

SEQUEL TO DEBACLE.

Swatow Falls to Sun Yat-sen Troops.

Faced with a debacle brought about through discord with his troops, General Chan Kwong-ming is reported to have arrived in Canton yesterday on board the s.s. Hangsang from Swatow.

Confirmation is lacking as to Chan's coming to Hongkong. According to the report, he proceeded to Kowloon to the residence of either General Hung Shiu-lun or Commander Wong Fook-chi. He is further said to have left, subsequently, for another house.

There seems little doubt that his troops have vacated Swatow which should now be in the hands of Cheung Man-tat who commands one of Hsu Shung-chi's divisions.

Telegraphic communication between Hongkong and Swatow is interrupted.

On the other hand, the direct land line service from Hongkong to Canton was again connected up this morning. It is hoped that private messages will be sent through the usual route as in time of peace.

Although the line is clear, trains are not running normally from Canton to Samchun on the border. Steps are being taken to restore through communication on the two sections of the Kowloon-Canton

WOMAN GOVERNOR AGAINST SMOKING.

Mrs. M. A. Ferguson, first woman Governor of Texas, is shown delivering her inaugural address in the chamber of the State House of Representatives, in Austin, immediately following her inauguration. "Ma" Ferguson does not mind so much if a man takes drink, but she is ready, at any time, to start a crusade against smokers. Addressing the Legislature she proposed an immediate tax against smokers to provide $200,000 annually to educate poor children. "If smokers are not interested in the great cause of education," she declared, "all they have to do is to cut out smoking until such time as the desire for smoking would overcome their opposition to education." She would tax cigarettes 10c a thousand for education, and cigars an average of 11 cts. per thousand.

ON HOLIDAY BENT.

FIRST BREAK FOR 15 YEARS.

Going Home on leave for the first time after about fifteen years' service in Hongkong, Revenue Officer W. Ward who sails by the Malaya to-morrow.

Revenue Officer Ward was in the Naval service, being on the destroyers when he came to Hongkong. Before joining the Imports and Exports Office he was in the Naval Yard for about seven years, and has now completed five years' service on the water front.

Mr. Ward is on the general committee of the Hongkong Boxing Association and has been prominently identified with the social and sporting activities of several other institutions. Popular with his colleagues and many others, he will take home with him the good wishes of large number for an enjoyable holiday.

DR. SUN YAT-SEN.

(By Courtesy of Daily Bulletin.)

PEKING, March 5. A bulletin states that Sun Yat-sen shows a slight swelling of fluid in the abdomen, which does not give much inconvenience. His temperature is normal and his pulse is 72.

HOME MAIL HERE.

The weekly mail via Suez arrived by the s.s. "Mantua" this morning after a delay of a day or so. Delivery of letters was made in the region of 10.30 a.m. and newspapers about two hours later, and recipients of parcels should have received their parcels about two o'clock.

ton Railway so that traffic can change over at Samchun.

As foreshadowed in yesterday's "China Mail" Swatow has fallen into the hands of the pro-Sun troops.

It now seems inevitable that except for the smaller detachments which are likely to disintegrate in the upheaval, Chan Kwong-ming's remnants will seek sanctuary in the province of Fukien.

WAICHOW DOOMED.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Canton, March 5. Official circles claim the capture of Swatow and the important town of Chiu Yung.

By Wednesday evening a debacle had set in and Chan Kwong-ming's army was fleeing. There are some in Canton who do not believe that Chan has left for Hongkong but that he is accompanying his men in their retreat towards the border.

I have been informed that the pro-Sun investing force will take over Waichow to-day (Thursday) or to-morrow (Friday). An anti-Sun garrison remains inside the city. No attack or sortie has been made. Fighting has been suspended pending the buying off of the non-combatant residents of the garrison to pave the way for Dr. Sun's men to enter in preference to the city being stormed.

"A CLEAN SWEEP."

Earlier in the campaign, I suggested that Chan might be "too proud to fight." I am now informed that this is not the case. His ally, Lin Fu, is the person to whom the accusation might be attributed and Chan is too poor to offer battle.

Without the Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu clique to fall back on for support, Chan has had to depend almost entirely on local revenue. Accordingly, he has not been able to pay Lin Fu who maintained that Chan should find the money as he held the most productive part of the territory occupied by their side.

Lin Fu has adopted a policy of masterly inactivity. He has prevented Chan from treating him as an enemy and he has kept the pro-Sun armies at arm's length. In the debacle, it seems that he will also be swept under.

Hung Shiu-lun (the centre of protracted extradition proceedings in Hongkong a good many years back) has made genuine efforts to stem the tide. He has given battle to the advancing forces now and again but has had to fall back every time for want of support.

Internal discord in the enemy camp paving the way for Dr. Sun's forces, General Hsu Shung-chi has struck a vital blow by sending the Cantonese troops and the Cadet Brigade from the Whampoa Military Academy to carry the offensive into the heart of Chan's territory.

It has been a clean sweep and nothing short of a miracle can now save the day.

A MATTER OF TIME.

In Hongkong there has been talk of Hsu Shung-chi's communications being cut but our Canton correspondent's report does not indicate its possibility.

It is only a case of time when the questions of Lin Fu's army—now in a position to strike at the flank of the pro-Sun vanguard—and Waichow will be settled automatically.

Later. Hongkong official sources have not been advised of General Chan's reported arrival. He was expected yesterday but did not come.

Surprise will not be occasioned should he arrive before the week is out.

FOR ANEURISM, CANCER ETC.

A new medicine for the cure of Aneurism, Cancer, and Carbuncle by Injection and Internal use.

Most physicians and surgeons have expressed the opinion that Aneurism, Cancer and Carbuncle are incurable and many deaths have been caused by these dread diseases. Dr. T. Matsushita, M. B., Professor of the Japanese Imperial University has made a careful study of these diseases for several years and has at last discovered the use of "CARCINOLYSIN" for the cure of these diseases. A large number of Japanese patients have been cured by the use of this medicine and it is now becoming well known for its curative properties.

Foreigners have always died of these diseases owing to failure to find a remedy.

Of late Mr. Sun Yat Sen is suffering from cancer of the liver which is a phase of one of the above-mentioned diseases. Those suffering from this disease will gradually develop fever, nervous pain, urinary troubles, poor appetite, dizziness and vomiting.

Victims of this disease are advised to immediately procure "CARCINOLYSIN" from our agent by taking this internally, or by injecting the progress of the disease will be stopped and results quickly obtained.

Cancer glands will disappear and swollen areas be reduced to a minimum quickly and easily by the use of "CARCINOLYSIN."

Those having hereditary disease are advised to take "CARCINOLYSIN" in order to check its activities.

This medicine is the result of long experience and has no injurious effect on those taking it.

UNRULY POLITICS.

SCENES IN HOUSE OF COMMONS.

CLYDE ROWDY "NAMED"

Labour Members March Bodily Out.

Following the suspension of a Labour member for unruly conduct, His Majesty's Opposition walked out of the House of Commons yesterday.

QUESTION OF COLOGNE.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, March 5. In the House of Commons the Liberal member, Mr. Fisher, opened the debate on foreign affairs. He hoped Mr. Austen Chamberlain, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, would lift the veil of foreign policy. He pointed out that postponement of the evacuation of the Cologne zone was a very grave step and pressed for publication of the case against the German Government on the subject of disarmament.

The Liberals were very anxious about the language used by Mr. Herriot to the French Press suggesting that the evacuation of Cologne was bound up in French minds with the general question of security.

Mr. Fisher asked: Would the evacuation of Cologne be carried out independently of French concurrence or must the Allies be agreed that the treaty had been observed.

The Liberals unalterably opposed the proposal of an Anglo-Franco-Belgian tripartite. A far more promising suggestion was contained in the reports that Germany had submitted a proposal for a pact guaranteeing the French frontiers.

DELICATE POSITION.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain replied that the Opposition was well aware of the caution, even reticence, with which Mr. Chamberlain must speak. He hoped that the House would not blame him if he reserved his opinion. Many subjects were not ripe for decision.

Mr. Chamberlain said as regards Cologne we had not even now got a considered appreciation of the points on which Germany had defaulted, but we knew that some time ago Germany was in default and was not justified in claiming the evacuation of Cologne on January 10.

The policy of His Majesty's Government was directed to securing compliance with substantial necessary measures of disarmament on which the Allies must insist before they could modify the fifteen year period of occupation.

SECRET MESSAGE.

Turning to Mr. Fisher's suggestion that Germany had made proposals to the Allies, Mr. Chamberlain stated his first knowledge of this was a communication which reached him very confidentially and secretly a few weeks back. He immediately said he could receive such communications under an implied pledge that he was not to speak of them to our Allies.

Mr. Chamberlain was constantly interrupted by whispered remarks by Mr. David Kirkwood, the Clyde Labour member, who at length shouted: "What about the Red letter?" when Mr. Chamberlain was referring to the secret document he had received from Germany.

Cheers greeted a warning from the Chairman of Committees that he would suspend Mr. Kirkwood if he did not refrain from interrupting. Mr. Kirkwood rose and shouted at the Chairman, who then ordered him to leave. Mr. Kirkwood refused to leave and was "named." The Speaker was summoned and Mr. Chamberlain moved the suspension of Mr. Kirkwood, which was carried, after Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, Leader of the Opposition, had unsuccessfully interceded, contending that Mr. Kirkwood had not been given his proper rights.

LABOUR DUDGEON.

The Speaker asked Mr. Kirkwood to leave, whereupon the Labour members rose and bodily marched out, headed by Mr. MacDonald, amid Ministerial laughter and cheers.

Mr. Chamberlain then resumed his speech.

When Mr. Chamberlain arose again he was greeted with loud cheers. He continued that the fact it was thought necessary to impose secrecy made him a little suspicious of the spirit in which the proposals were made, but the German Ambassador had assured him that Germany always intended to communicate similarly with Paris, Brussels and Rome, and that had been now done.

HAUNTING FEARS.

Mr. Chamberlain emphasised that he did not desire to conceal anything of the Commission's report provided publication would lead to a solution, but the question of publication depended on the Allies' concurrence.

While he was not sure that publication of a case of large and final defaults without dis-termination was likely to conduce to the object in view, he pointed out that the occupation of Cologne could not be continued except in pursuance of the clear purposes and provisions of the treaty. (Cheers.)

Adverting to the question of security which he described as of immense and overwhelming importance, Mr. Chamberlain declared the dominant element in Europe to-day was the all-pervading sense of insecurity. No real progress could be made until we had relieved the oppressive fears, haunting the waking and sleeping thoughts of statesmen in many countries.

HIGH HOPES.

Even at the first moment Mr. Chamberlain said that he welcomed a new move by the German Government, and now that they had substantially repeated the proposals to the other Allies, he attached great importance to them. It was obviously not desirable at this stage to enter in public into the details.

Mr. Chamberlain added that exchange of views among the Allies had up to the present been very slight, and a fuller exchange of views and a closer examination of the purport and possibilities of the proposal were necessary before anything could be usefully or safely added to the subject.

Mr. Fisher queried whether newspaper reports roughly represented the proposal.

Mr. Chamberlain said that he preferred not to give appreciation of such important proposals which might possibly be the starting point of the real recovery of the European situation. "If our help is required to effect such a consummation, the help, also the goodwill, of this country will not be lacking."

GIVING HEED.

Mr. Chamberlain said that he had not yet formed any idea what form our co-operation would take. He referred to past efforts to withdraw from Continental entanglements, but said living twenty miles from the shores of the Continent we could not remain indifferent to the peace and security of the Continental world, nor could we remain callous and deaf to the appeal for help.

"It is not in a selfish short-sighted spirit of isolation that we shall exercise our mission of influence in the world now that we speak in consultation with the free self-governing Dominions."

Mr. Chamberlain concluded by saying: "Our greatness and power help to remove from the minds of men the trouble which still haunts them and recalls the agonies of a few years ago. They are a great call to endeavour, effort and service in the British Empire. I believe the Empire will gladly respond. (Cheers.)"

CONSULTING THE DOMINIONS.

Sir Edward Grigg (Liberal) recalled that the original pact with France, although ratified by Australia and New Zealand, was not ratified by Canada and South Africa. He declared that this was a serious consideration, but a new form of guarantee might probably commend itself more to the Dominions, while as regards South Africa it must be remembered that Holland was at present as much interested in the guarantee of these Eastern frontiers as any other power.

Sir John Simon, K.C. (Liberal), objected to security being linked up with the occupation of Cologne and said unless Germany seriously violated the treaty we were in Cologne without authority.

LABOUR'S PROTEST.

London, March 5. The Labour members did not return to the House of Commons during the foreign debate, but met and passed a resolution that while deprecating the persistent obstruction of business, there was no justification for the "peremptory and arbitrary action of Mr. Hope, the Chairman of Committees, in naming Mr. Kirkwood's slight interruptions which were in no wise provocative or disorderly."

The Executive subsequently decided to lodge a motion to the effect that as Mr. Hope had acted with undue haste and impatience, therefore the naming of Mr. Kirkwood was not warranted. ADMIRAL'S STATEMENT.

SINGAPORE WARSHIP CONCENTRATION ACCIDENTAL.

(Reuter's Service.)

Singapore, March 5. "The amount of bosh" being talked about the naval conference here, is deprecated by Vice-Admiral Sir Allan Everett, Commander-in-Chief of the China Station.

Interviewed by Reuter, he said that the meeting was in accordance with the Admiralty idea that every two years the commanders of adjacent stations should meet and discuss questions affecting them all.

They had not met to discuss the naval base any more than the price of bananas. The only thing was that supposing the three stations in the Pacific had to act together in a crisis—and he personally did not see one—they had got to arrange co-operative action.

The fact that there were so many ships at Singapore was accidental. The presence of the "Adelaide" was due to her returning from a cruise with the Special Service Squadron and was an expression of inter-changeability, the idea being to give her an opportunity of practising co-ordinate exercises in gunnery, torpedo work, etc.

The ships were collected here because it was the most convenient place for the three squadrons.

It is understood that at the conclusion of the conference, Admiral Richmond, Commander-in-Chief of the East Indies Station, will proceed to Ceylon, thence for a cruise in East African waters, in which the cruisers "Colombo" and "Cairo" will participate.

tunity to discuss the motion which will doubtless be granted immediately.

GERMANY AND FRANCE.

Paris, March 5. According to the "Echo de Paris," M. Herriot is willing to agree to the German suggestions concerning a pact of guarantee only under the following conditions: firstly, the conclusion of Franco-Anglo-Belgian military arrangements quite independent of the pact; secondly, Germany's entry into the League of Nations with the acceptance of all obligations required thereby; thirdly, extensive alteration in the German propositions regarding treaties of arbitration to be concluded with Poland and Czechoslovakia.

HOLLAND'S POSITION.

Paris, March 5. In an interview published in the "Matin" General Synders who commanded Dutch covering troops during the war, said that Holland would never agree to a guarantee pact on a limited basis, as by doing so she would be placing herself under the overlordship of the great powers. He added that Holland would not deviate from the principles of the League of Nations.

HANDS TIED?

The Conservative Major Sir Clive Morrison, Bell urged the Government to study jealously any agreement that put the British naval or other forces in pawn.

Mr. Walter Runciman (Liberal) pressed Mr. Chamberlain to state his views on the protocol. He regretted that Britain had tied her hands by undertaking to support the re-appointment of the present French chairman of the Saar Commission.

Mr. Chamberlain, winding up the debate, denied that the Saar could be described as a danger spot in Europe, although he was not prepared to defend all that went on in the Saar administration.

As regards the Protocol, Mr. Chamberlain said that three months' deliberations had only just reached the stage where a statement could possibly be made. He was still uncertain in what form the Government decision would best be conveyed, but he expected to be called on to make an announcement at the next League meeting.

WORLD PEACE.

Mr. Chamberlain was averse from encouraging the signature of international documents of fundamental importance with a string of separate discordant reservations by many signatory Powers.

It might sometimes be necessary to sign with reservations, but it was dangerous to have a charter of world peace or documents with reservations. "All the indications he was able to obtain about the state of opinion in other countries which had

HOW THE SOVIETS SEE THEM.

JAPAN'S CURIOUS POSITION.

Russia China's "Only Sincere Friend"

That China regards the Union of Soviets as more than ever her "one and only sincere friend" is a belief firmly held in Russia.

BRITAIN'S POWER.

(Reuter's Service.)

Tientsin, March 5. M. Chicherin, Soviet Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, summing up the world situation, said Britain remained the most influential world Power militarily and financially, but a new factor was arising from the growing self-determination and aspirations of the Dominions which did not want to be drawn into any question not concerning them.

The action of the Conservative Government towards the Soviet had not occurred without pressure from the Dominions which regarded very hostilely the Soviet policy of equality to all nationalities and races.

There was certain to be a breach in Anglo-American relations, notably due to the new direction of American policy in China, which was now aiming at acquiring the sympathies of the Chinese people, and so departed from the policy of the other Powers.

Japan's vacillating policy was due to her dualistic position as an imperialistic power on the one hand and as the representative of the colored races on the other. That Russia and Japan were treaty allies was an appreciable departure from the predominance of a single empire.

The Orient, especially China, presented a picture of extraordinary rapid development and movement for national liberation.

THOSE DEBTS.

Tientsin, March 5. M. Chicherin, dealing exhaustively with foreign affairs, dwelt on the retirement of Mr. Charles Evans Hughes as America's Secretary of State, the turn of America's Chinese policy, and the necessity of America's more actively participating in international affairs.

He declared that the Soviet was striving for agreement on the debt question, but so that the "industrial people of the Union of Soviets should not pay kopeck."

He asserted that resumption of the Wrangel fleet was an essential condition of any agreement with France.

M. Chicherin alluded to the unaltered friendship existing with Germany. He said that the Soviet was requesting exception from the most favoured nation clause for Germany respecting Eastern trade.

FRIENDS IN THE EAST.

The Soviet was strengthening its friendship with Eastern States, especially Turkey and Afghanistan. The Soviet representative at Hadjar was carrying out his duties as an observer following the course of momentous events in Amble.

The Soviet recognized Mongolia as a part of the whole Chinese Republic enjoying complete internal and external economy.

M. Chicherin declared that China regarded the Union of Soviets as increasingly her one and only sincere friend.

"The Chinese and Russian staffs were co-operating satisfactorily on the Eastern Chinese Railway."

Regarding the Japan-Soviet treaty, he said Japan wanted a friendly hinterland and a strengthening of her international and Asiatic Relations. The treaty was a prelude to further rapprochement.

FEDERAL COURT'S WIDE DECISION.

RIGHTS OF CAPTURE.

(Reuter's American Service.)

New York, March 5. The Federal Court has upheld the United States' right to seize vessels planning to land liquor on American shores from any place on the high seas.

The ruling is based on the case of the Dutch schooner "Zeeland," captured on December of 1924, which the Court ordered to be forfeited.

The Government attorney said that the decision for the first time established the Government's rights to capture an alien ship outside the twelve mile limit.

HOLLAND'S HELP.

(Reuter's Service.)

The Hague, March 5. The Second Chamber has approved the Washington Treaty Bill.

The Government tabled a Bill last December approving of the treaty concluded on August 21 at Washington regarding the transport of alcoholic liquors. It is identical with the Anglo-American liquor treaty.]

LAID TO REST.

GERMAN PRESIDENT'S FUNERAL.

(Reuter's Service.)

Berlin, March 5. With a police band playing "Deutschland Uber Alles," Herr Ebert, Germany's late President, was buried at Heidelberg in the presence of huge crowds.

Berlin traffic was stopped for five minutes as a mark of reverence.

HIGHER BANK RATE.

FURTHER RISE DEEMED UNLIKELY.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, March 5. The raising of the bank rate was generally expected after the increase in the New York rate last week, which caused considerable disorganization in the money markets.

To-day's increase is intended to check the withdrawal of American money from London.

Money thought plentiful, now commands higher rates, but it is generally understood that London and New York are closely co-operating, and fears of unduly high rates in the immediate future are groundless.

(The Bank of England discount rate is now five per cent.)

FIRE IN TOKYO.

TOKYO, March 5. At the Diet was discussing a measure for the gradual abolition of the life-time quarters, 300 houses were totally destroyed by fire in Sushikone, one of the biggest of such quarters in Tokyo.

STORE OF DRUGS.

CHARGES AGAINST AN INDIAN

The hearing began at the Kowloon Magistrate's yesterday of the case in which one Karim Bux was charged with unlawful possession of a quantity of poison and with practising as a doctor without being registered.

Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith prosecuted, and Mr. Elsie Zillyn (instructed by Messrs. Deacons) appeared for the defence. Opening his case, Mr. Whyte-Smith said that evidence would be produced to show that the accused, who resided at the Indian Mosque in Nathan Road, gave medical advice to certain persons, charging them for his services. It would also be shown that accused had an interest in a shop at No. 34, Halphong Road, where he appeared to have stored an additional quantity of drugs. The drugs contained arsenic, opium, and other poisons which came under the Ordinance.

Captain Bloxham, A.S.P., who conducted the raids with other members of the force, described the finding of the drugs in locked boxes and a book case on New Year's Eve. After the arrest of the accused, certain Indians handed witness other packets and bottles of medicine which were said to have come from the accused.

Cross-examined by Mr. Zillyn, witness said that he was unable to say which particular packet or bottle was found in each box. Accused occupied quarters separated from the mosque itself, and it was not a place used by the Indians before they entered the mosque. He had heard that there had been trouble between accused and the Halphong Road shopkeeper regarding the accounts of the firm.

LOCAL CINEMA FEATURES.

QUEEN'S THEATRE

"The Invisible Fear" starring Anita Stewart contains some beautiful sets which are highly artistic features. In spite of Shakespeare's immortal remark about the play being the thing, the producer, Mr. Edwin Carewe, believes that a bit of action or a good situation, in order to appear effective, should have every advantage in the way of the proper setting. Consequently, the boudoir, drawing room and ball room scenes in the country mansion in "The Invisible Fear" represent a small fortune in architecture and furnishings.

"The Invisible Fear" will be the feature at the Queen's Theatre to-day only.

SOVIET RUSSIA.

INTERESTING HONGKONG VISITATIONS.

Some interesting remarks were made on the occasion of Russia at the conclusion of Professor John Smith's lecture on "Socialism, Syndicalism and Anarchism" at the University Grant Hall yesterday afternoon. There the task of restoring order had been and was slow, but that was the price that had to be paid for a Government that was truly democratic. Anarchism means peace, government, Russia not a better popular representation among her governors, but the method of government was slow.

Russia could not be blamed for what had happened, she had obeyed the principles of psychology and those who blocked her arms refused her food and medical help could not be blamed either, because they were merely obeying their psychological principles.

The following extract from the Ordinance relating to Jurors is published in the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps Order:—"The following persons shall not be liable to serve as Jurors:—All Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers of the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps, and such other efficient members of the

It has not escaped notice that the lower level tram cars which have had new overhead covers fitted on them, give increased seating accommodation. When the "China Mail" agitated for these covers it was said that they would make the cars top-heavy and be dangerous in typhoon weather.
Evidently the new manager, who is an expert, thinks otherwise.
The innovation is certainly appreciated.

Bills which became law in the Legislative Council yesterday, were those amending the Stamp Ordinance, 1921, the Dangerous Goods Ordinance, 1873 and the Advertisements Regulations Ordinance, 1912. That amending the Legal Practitioners Ordinance was to have had its first reading but was allowed to stand over.

Professor Kut Tin Sheung and his company, concluded a two night season at the Theatre Royal.
The professor did some amazing tricks whilst the Jung brothers provided themselves no mean athletes.
Perhaps the most interesting thing was the large audience composed in the main of very interested Chinese of all classes. There was also a jazz band in which the saxophone predominated.

The Hon. Mr. D. W. Trotman,
acting Secretary for Chinese Affairs, took the oath and his seat
as member of the Council at yesterday's Legislative Council meet-

A huge black book containing 11,000 signatures and chops, representing the petition from the Hongkong Tenants' Protective Association, was laid upon the table at yesterday's Legislative Council meeting.

A Shanghai Chinese Association of Chartered Accountants has been organized in Shanghai. A

Agriculture and Commerce.

John W. ("Mal") Maloney,
sanitary engineer, was arrested by the U.S. Deputy Marshal at Shanghai on a charge of carrying a pistol and 100 rounds of ammunition. The prisoner was brought before Judge Purdy at the U. S. Court and admitted to bail.

A communication from the Belgian Legation asks the Chinese Foreign Office to arrange for compensation of the damages done to the homes of the foreign railwaymen of the Lung Hai Line by Chinese troops. Likewise the return of the rolling stock of that road now held by the military is requested.

He did not know when the Council would be able to proceed with the Rente resolution standing in the name of the Colonial Secretary, said His Excellency yesterday. Upon the suggestion of the Hon. Mr. P. H. Holyoak, instructions were given that the words "not to be proceeded with at this meeting" should be added to such resolutions in future when it was only a matter of them appearing on the agenda as a formality.

A case of alleged attempted human sacrifice before a Hindu deity is being tried by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Alipore, states a Calcutta message. In this case Sarada Charan Mandal is being prosecuted by the Bistoppur police on a charge of having attempted to sacrifice
Sanyasi Maji before the idol Panchanan of Anguria village.
It is alleged that a subscription was raised to defray puja expenses. Sanyasi declared his inability to pay, but was invited to attend the puja ceremony. When he went there he was told that as he could not pay he should give up his body to satisfy the idol. It is alleged that the accused then struck Sanyasi on the neck with a dao. The accused was remanded in custody.

Gen. Chang Chung-chang,
Commander in Chief of the 1st Fengtien Army, has ordered the Commissioner of Shanghai and Woosung Police to take up the work of drug suppression. Gen.
Chang states that there are at present three or four bureaux dealing with the drug traffic, all of which are money-making concerns which afford protection to opium smugglers and sellers, hence they should be suppressed.

The Ordinance to provide for the incorporation of the Bishop of Victoria in the Colony of Hongkong passed its final stages and became law yesterday afternoon.
The word "Lord" appearing originally before "Bishop" was deleted upon the motion of the Attorney General. His Excellency the Governor explained that although the Bishop of Victoria was always referred to as Lord Bishop,
the title was not recognised, as it only applied to those Bishops who sat in the House of Lords. It was legally incorrect and the word
should accordingly be excised.
The Council agreed to the amendment.

volunteered for service under Dr.

of Chinese and foreign doctors malady. He remained in the Mar-chuan Peking Service until 1917, and then returned to Tientsin to start in private practice, specialising

dance music, and greatly contributed to the success of the evening.

be circulated regarding Marshal Wu Pei-fu. As a variant from the wild rumours of the last few weeks, Wu is reported by some Chinese papers to have gone to Kuling.
Other papers say he intends to go

Prince Henry, King of the Home papers, has always been regarded by his father-in-law as "one of the boys." Often a crowd of them have run into Northampton from their neighbouring principality, evening in the theatre, and it is always found that the young Prince is a devotee of playing for the pleasure of the game, and not for the sake of the money.

Subscriptions of all other terms will be reckoned pro rata with the above schedule. Subscriptions may be sold wholesale for any number of years and credits will be issued on the same pro rata basis. Such wholesale subscriptions may be split up into short terms and the names furnished
at any time within two years.

NO SUBSCRIPTION MONEY
WILL BE REFUNDED ONCE
CREDITS HAVE BEEN ISSUED.

HOW TO ENTER AND WIN.

Any person who desires may join the campaign by sending in his name to The Campaign Headquarters.

The Campaign will close on April 4th, 1925.

There will be no districts or territories. A member may secure subscriptions anywhere.

Immediately at the close of the Campaign, the votes will be counted and the member having the greatest number of votes will be awarded the first prize. The one having the second greatest number of votes will be given the second prize, and so on down the list until all prizes have been awarded.

Votes are given free and can be obtained by securing fully paid subscriptions to The China Mail or Sunday Herald.

Votes issued to one member cannot be transferred to another member.

No employee of this paper or member of the employee's family may become a member.

The Campaign is open to anyone anywhere. With the first subscription for $36.00 you secure, you will be given the votes on the "First subscription coupon." You may use only one of these coupons during the entire campaign as no more will be counted for one member.

You will get the votes on all subscriptions as stated in the schedule published. This schedule of votes will never be changed. In addition to the regular votes, a special bonus of 400,000 votes will be given on every total of $100.00 subscription money turned in during the second period ending March 7th, 1925. You will receive just as many extra votes as 400,000 votes as you turn in totals of $100.00 between now and March 7th. This is the greatest special credit offer of the Balance of the Campaign and you will never again get as many votes for subscriptions.

The rules are so easy and the plan so simple that anyone who desires may go in and get a big prize. With a little effort in the right direction, you will be surprised how easily the credits count up toward winning the grand prize. ENTER YOUR NAME TO-DAY.

EASY TO GET VOTES.

The Campaign is really just getting started and contestants
will find it very easy to get votes.
The first thing to do is to come to the Campaign Headquarters immediately and get receipt books and supplies which will be furnished free. Then begin calling on friends and acquaintances and ask for their votes.
Still better let them hand the subscription money direct to you. When you turn in the money and subscriptions at the office, the votes will be given to you.

The value of subscription payments is shown on the opposite side of this page. Get the subscriptions in now as they count more now than they ever will again.

EXPERT DRIVERS. MODERATE CHARGES.

This photograph shows the broken window pane in the cigar store of the European Hotel, in Herrin, Illinois, where Deputy Sheriff Thomas shot it out with his long-time enemy, S. Glenn Young, Klan leader, and self-appointed "clean-up agent" in "Bloody Williamson County." Four men died as a result of the duel. State troops are now in command. Note the guardsman with fixed bayonet.

Son's Death.

Leon Daudet, leader of the French Royalists, whose son, Philippe, fourteen years old, was believed to have committed suicide in a Paris taxi cab a year ago, has presented to French courts evidence he declares implicates five persons, including police, in the "murder" of the lad.

Troops, with machine guns, again are on guard duty in "Bloody Herrin," following the pistol duel between Glenn Young, and Deputy Sheriff Thomas, both of whom were killed, along with two other men, Sheriff George Calligan, whose chief deputy Thomas was, has sworn in additional deputies.

Miss Mary Ellen Mellon, was attacked in her home and kidnapped by robbers she surprised. When she attempted to scream, she was beaten, gagged, bound and carried to a waiting motor car.

Hearts of many university undergraduates at Evanston, fluttered when two supposed members of ousted Russian nobility appeared on the campus and told of their privations and sufferings. Affecting a semi-Russian dialect, Miss Sarah Anna Schweich and Miss Elena Pantayides, so duped the male of the species that numerous applications for "Counts" were made—until the hoax was discovered.

Miss Alma Nash, full-blooded Black Hawk Indian girl, has started for Australia to fulfil movie and theatrical contracts. She recently returned to her home after a six months' triumphant appearance at the London Hippodrome. Miss Nash is the daughter of Al Nash, famous Indian runner of a decade ago.

Above are shown Father Ernest D'Aquila, with his assistant, Father Serrano Cajotan, the former the intended victim of a blackmail plot and Detective Humbert Berardi, who helped foil the Sicilian blackmailers. Berardi and two of the blackmailers were wounded in the gun battle which followed the finding by the Sicilians of a decoy package supposed to contain the $2,000 demanded. All the wounded will recover. The alleged blackmailers are under arrest.

Indian Scandal.

The immensely wealthy Maharajah of Indore is declared to have been the instigator of the attempted kidnapping in Bombay of the beautiful Indian dancing girl, Mumtaz Begum, formerly a member of his household. The kidnapping was frustrated by four British army officers, one of whom was killed. Seven Indore officials have been arrested.

Earl Carroll, famous theatrical producer, was rushed to hospital, following a serious attack of heart trouble. He is thirty-five years old. Tommy Gibbons, light heavyweight, has been signed up and Tex Richard, sports promoter, is negotiating with Jack Dempsey for a fifteen-round fight to a decision in New York about June 1, the winner to agree to meet Harry Wills, negro heavyweight. Giacomo de Martino, recently Italian Ambassador to Japan, has been appointed Ambassador to the United States.

WORLD OF SPORT.BOXING.*FILIPINO BOYS' DEBUT IN SEATTLE.

Rufe Canion and Benny Foral,
well known to Shanghai fans
through their fine work there last year, made an excellent impression
at their debut in Seattle on January 27, though neither of them succeeded in getting the decision over their opponents. They fought at Crystal Pool, before a packed house, Rufe being matched with Chuck Hell-man and Benny with Mike Mitchell.
Rufe appears to have gotten a raw deal when his fight with Hellman was adjudged a draw, a slugger pure and simple with a very good record, who has lost decisions to only four men in his thirty-five fights, and who recently knocked out Eddie Haddon in San Francisco.

Canion, however, waded right into the older boy throughout, out-fighting him in four out of the six rounds. The Seattle Daily Times
reports the affair as follows:

As the well-known footballist
Mr. Andy Smith of California
twice stated last season—
"I've had my pockets picked again."

That to-day must be the feelings of Rufe Canion, by six pounds the larger of N. D. Percival's paid of fighting Filipinos.

Rufe chased Chuck Hellman of Portland all around the ring; out-boxed him in four of the first five rounds, cut him to ribbons but couldn't land a knockout blow.

And when Hellman staged a sixth round rally, hitting the little Filipino boy hard enough to slow him up, the learned judges, possibly from bias, wrote a draw.

Benny Foral, the other Percivalmanaged Filipino, lost to Mike Mitchell, but could have had a draw decision just as well as Helman. But he wore himself out carrying Mitchell around and hit him quite at will in the fourth.

The Filipinos made a nice impression. They are wonderful boxers, though neither one can knock out a rugged boy. They let themselves be tricked into carrying their opponents about on their shoulders too much.

They are audience pleasers
though, both of them, like to fight,
as their smiling faces showed throughout, and should get plenty of action on this side.

GIBBONS AND WILLS.

New York, February 22.—Tom Gibbons and Harry Wills to-day agreed to meet at the milk fund charity bout next summer. The bout will take place at one of the big league baseball parks, and will be scheduled for fifteen rounds, the winner to be matched later in the summer for a title match with Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion, provided the latter will agree to fight once more before retiring from the ring.

CRICKET.THE FAMOUS THIRD TEST
MATCH.*AN AUSTRALIAN VIEW.

The Brisbane Courier on the day of the close of the third test match gave the following admirable summary of the position:

It tests with Gilligan, Freeman,
and Strudwick whether or no England will to-day secure a victory which will be acclaimed by sportsmen throughout the world, generally, and cricket enthusiasts in particular, as one of the greatest exhibitions of bulldog grit and tenacity of purpose ever recorded. But even though the refreshed Australian attack proves too much for the tail, which wagged so effectively yesterday, the honours (morally) will be with the tourists who have plugged on magnificently in the face of seemingly insurmountable odds.

On a wicket the Australians had found check-full of tricks, England made a meritorious start, and confounded the best judges by compiling 133 for the loss of three wickets. They still, however, were 242 runs away from success when play was resumed yesterday, and he was indeed a superstitious who was confident that England would not find the task beyond them.

The story of yesterday's duel between bat and ball is a narrative of supreme endeavour in which several players on both sides figure conspicuously. For if Whysall and Chapman rendered invaluable service, and Gilligan
and Freeman (two crumpies)
performed with real valour, there is the truly sensational catch by Gregory, which ended Whysall's career, and the wonderful effort by

POLO.ACCIDENT AT HANKOW.

An unfortunate accident occured at the Hankow Race Club
during a polo game between the Club and a combined Navy team
when Mr. L. J. Machin, manager of the Robinson Piano Co., was obliged to retire early in the game with a broken rib. He was immediately attended by Dr. Mc-Willie.

Ryder, which accounted for Chapman.
The three remaining Englishmen are asked to average nine runs each. It is not asking a great deal, but few will envy them
the ordeal which they have to undergo.

W. G. GRACE'S VIEWS ON BOWLING.

Arthur Gilligan, the English
captain, acts contrary to every opinion of W. G. Grace, who knew more about cricket than any ten others. But then Gilligan has never managed his bowling well.
He keeps Tate on too long, and he makes the mistake of always opening the bowling in big games and most others with Tate and himself. Hear what Grace once told Mr. H. G. Tylecote and now related in the Field.

"Always have four bowlers, a fast
one, a medium fast, a slow bowler and a left-hand bowler if you can get one. Never put two fast bowlers on to start with, especially if they both bowl over the wicket; nothing gets a man's eye in better than two fast bowlers on a plumb wicket. Begin with a slow bowler and a fast one, and you will soon see which the ground suits the best and which the batsmen shape at worst.
Change after 15 to 20 runs, unless the batsmen seem stuck up, but do not keep the fast bowler on too long or he will lose his sting, and he is often more useful for the end batsmen. If you have a good left-hand slow bowler do not forget to put him on, very soon. It is no use expecting him to get men out at once when they have got their eye in."
